Top athletes and HOLMENKOL support children in disadvantaged countries.

Sports fundraising campaign for Right To Play at ISPO

Ditzingen, 21 January 2005. HOLMENKOL's demo truck in the atrium at Winter ISPO 2005 is hosting a fundraising campaign for the sporting community's children's charity Right To Play each day. Right To Play is a non-governmental organisation, founded by the several-times Olympic champion Johann Olav Koss, which uses the positive power of sport and play to improve the quality of life of disadvantaged children and their communities in a decisive and lasting way. Right To Play is supported by renowned top athletes from around the world (including Lance Armstrong, Steve Podborski, Michael Johnson, Vreni Schneider).

Every visitor to the APRÈS-SKI BAR 5 metres up on the roof of HOLMENKOL's demo truck who makes a donation will receive a free Glühwein and a lipstick. In addition, the largest donation received on each day of the ISPO trade fair will be rewarded with a T shirt signed by the élite of the ski jumping world (names such as Ahonen, Hannwald, Malysz, Widhölzl, Morgenstern) and a Right To Play football.

HOLMENKOL will be presented at the Winter ISPO 2005 in the HOLMENKOL demo truck in the atrium between the halls A2 and B2.

HOLMENKOL Sport Technologies is the world's oldest ski wax manufacturer and, since 2002, has been specialising exclusively in the development and marketing around the world of highly innovative and environmentally acceptable sports coatings based on the latest technology. In 2004 HOLMENKOL was voted one of the 100 most innovative medium-sized companies in Germany. The NANOWAX product line was chosen by the business magazine FORBES as the world's top nanotechnology product for 2003. Further information about the company and its products is available on the website at www.holmenkol.com.

Right To Play is a non-governmental organisation, founded by the several-times Olympic champion Johann Olav Koss, which uses the positive power of sport and play to improve the quality of life of disadvantaged children and their communities in a decisive and lasting way. Right To Play is supported by renowned top athletes from around the world (including Lance Armstrong, Steve Podborski, Michael Johnson, Vreni Schneider).

Every visitor to the APRÈS-SKI BAR 5 metres up on the roof of HOLMENKOL's demo truck who makes a donation will receive a free Glühwein and a lipstick. In addition, the largest donation received on each day of the ISPO trade fair will be rewarded with a T shirt signed by the élite of the ski jumping world (names such as Ahonen, Hannwald, Malysz, Widhölzl, Morgenstern) and a Right To Play football.

HOLMENKOL will be presented at the Winter ISPO 2005 in the HOLMENKOL demo truck in the atrium between the halls A2 and B2.

HOLMENKOL Sport Technologies is the world's oldest ski wax manufacturer and, since 2002, has been specialising exclusively in the development and marketing around the world of highly innovative and environmentally acceptable sports coatings based on the latest technology. In 2004 HOLMENKOL was voted one of the 100 most innovative medium-sized companies in Germany. The NANOWAX product line was chosen by the business magazine FORBES as the world's top nanotechnology product for 2003. Further information about the company and its products is available on the website at www.holmenkol.com.

Right To Play is a non-governmental organisation, founded by the several-times Olympic champion Johann Olav Koss, which uses the positive power of sport and play to improve the quality of life of disadvantaged children and their communities in a decisive and lasting way. Right To Play is supported by renowned top athletes from around the world (including Lance Armstrong, Steve Podborski, Michael Johnson, Vreni Schneider).

Every visitor to the APRÈS-SKI BAR 5 metres up on the roof of HOLMENKOL's demo truck who makes a donation will receive a free Glühwein and a lipstick. In addition, the largest donation received on each day of the ISPO trade fair will be rewarded with a T shirt signed by the élite of the ski jumping world (names such as Ahonen, Hannwald, Malysz, Widhölzl, Morgenstern) and a Right To Play football.

HOLMENKOL will be presented at the Winter ISPO 2005 in the HOLMENKOL demo truck in the atrium between the halls A2 and B2.

HOLMENKOL Sport Technologies is the world's oldest ski wax manufacturer and, since 2002, has been specialising exclusively in the development and marketing around the world of highly innovative and environmentally acceptable sports coatings based on the latest technology. In 2004 HOLMENKOL was voted one of the 100 most innovative medium-sized companies in Germany. The NANOWAX product line was chosen by the business magazine FORBES as the world's top nanotechnology product for 2003. Further information about the company and its products is available on the website at www.holmenkol.com.

Sports fundraising campaign for Right To Play at ISPO

Ditzingen, 21 January 2005. HOLMENKOL's demo truck in the atrium at Winter ISPO 2005 is hosting a fundraising campaign for the sporting community's children's charity Right To Play each day. Right To Play is a non-governmental organisation, founded by the several-times Olympic champion Johann Olav Koss, which uses the positive power of sport and play to improve the quality of life of disadvantaged children and their communities in a decisive and lasting way. Right To Play is supported by renowned top athletes from around the world (including Lance Armstrong, Steve Podborski, Michael Johnson, Vreni Schneider).

Every visitor to the APRÈS-SKI BAR 5 metres up on the roof of HOLMENKOL's demo truck who makes a donation will receive a free Glühwein and a lipstick. In addition, the largest donation received on each day of the ISPO trade fair will be rewarded with a T shirt signed by the élite of the ski jumping world (names such as Ahonen, Hannwald, Malysz, Widhölzl, Morgenstern) and a Right To Play football.
